

But, what does being a club member mean?

It means you'll have access to secret articles full of advice regarding: wellbeing, productivity and getting organised. Alongside this you will be able to download, at your own time and pace, an array of bullet journal inspired worksheets that are perfect for sticking into a journal or ring-bound planner for immediate use.

Should you decide to become a Premium club member, you will also be able to access my Exclusive Mellie the Marshmallow collection, a fun little extra to boost your mood and desire to want to plan.

Introducing the 'Planning For Success' Club

Standard

Access to all the bullet journal worksheets, secret articles and guide books.

Premium

This includes additional access to the Mellie printable collections.

Superfan

Nothing extra, it just buys me a coffee from you. This shows me how much you appreciate my hard work. So a big thank you is needed from me!

What your subscription choice allows you access to:

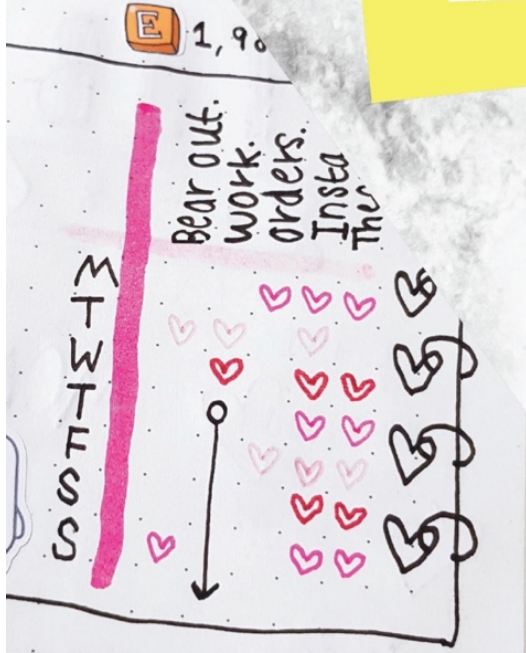

Track happiness and gratitude!

Keep track of habits!

Example Worksheets:

Never forget a Birthday again!

There will be new worksheets, resources, hidden articles and productivity tools uploaded each month to the members only zone. As a member, you will have the opportunity to vote and contribute towards the content published on my blog.
